Dear Mr. President:-

I was much interested in the newspaper item that you were endeavouring to arrange for a short course of lectures by the Honourable Mr. Taft for the ensuing academic year. If there is anything I can do to facilitate such an arrangement in the way of suggestion or giving up any part of my subjects or as may otherwise occur to you as desirable, it will give me pleasure to put myself and my course at your disposal for this purpose.

Yours very truly,

Y/EM.

Professor McGregor Young,
Toronto.

Dear Professor Young:

Many thanks for your letter. It is very kind of you to offer to facilitate arrangements for a short course by Mr. Tait if he returns next year. He has not yet definitely decided to come, but if he does come his lectures will be on the basis of the Warfleet Lectureship Foundation, and probably we shall have them at night or in the late afternoon when the public can attend.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
